

Children's HOSPITAL OF GEORGIA
AUGUSTA UNIVERSITY

GEORGIA
CANCER CENTER
AUGUSTA UNIVERSITY

Georgia Neurofibromatosis Clinic

Multidisciplinary clinical and research center for patients of all ages with neurofibromatosis types 1 and 2, and tuberous sclerosis complex.

The Neurofibromatosis Clinic are held on the first Tuesday afternoon of each month, although, patients can be seen on other days according to need.

NF1 Clinical Services Specialists on the Team

- Genetics
- Medical oncology
- Neurology
- Neuro-oncology
- Ophthalmology
- Neuropathology
- Neuroradiology
- Neurosurgery
- Pediatric neurology
- Plastic surgery
- Orthopedic Surgery
- Radiation oncology
- Research coordination

NF2 Clinical Services Specialists on the Team

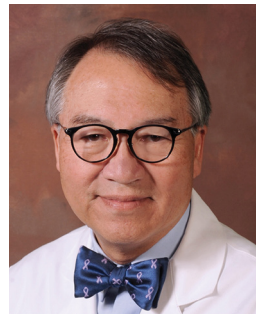

- Audiology
- Genetics
- Medical oncology
- Neurology
- Neuro-oncology
- Neuro-ophthalmology
- Neuropathology
- Neuroradiology
- Neurosurgery
- Neurotology
- Radiation oncology
- Research coordination
- Social services

John W. Henson, MD
Neuro-oncology
Genetics, Adult Neurology

Colleen McDonough, MD,
Pediatric Oncology

Yong Park, MD
Pediatric Neurology
Pediatric Epilepsy

Suzanne Strickland, MD
Pediatric Neurology
Pediatric Epilepsy

Elizabeth Sekul, MD
Pediatric Neurology

Georgia Neurofibromatosis Clinic
Pediatric Neurology
Children's Hospital of Georgia
1446 Harper Street
Augusta, GA 30912
Telephone: 706-446-5455